Special Presentation – Makerspace Grant

John Graulty, Dean of Visual, Applied and Performing Arts described the Makerspace Grant and how Laurel Jones was instrumental in starting the grant process at Cabrillo. John talked about how the Makerspace started with an emphasis on the arts until the state asked him to modify the focus to include science and engineering with a focus on industry and student employment opportunities across a wide spectrum of disciplines. He introduced Payson McNett who is running the Makerspace program and Fablab. Payson described the equipment that he was able to purchase using the grant money from the Foundation, focusing on the 3-D printer and all of its applications. He talked about the curriculum he is developing and then introduced Mary Govaars, a student and now employee in the Fablab. Mary talked about her introduction to the Makerspace equipment for jewelry making and then discovered applications for science projects (ROV) for her children. John Graulty finished the discussion announcing the grand opening of the Makerspace on January 20, 2018, at which time anyone from the public can come and see demonstrations and sample the equipment.

President's Report

Cabrillo President Laurel Jones spoke briefly about Cabrillo's Strategic Plan and gave a link to a detailed webpage outlining this plan. She then spoke about Guided Pathways and how Cabrillo will be implementing Guided Pathways to address improvements requested by the community as a part of the Community Forums that took place earlier in the year. One of these improvements is overhauling the Cabrillo website to give students more information on enrollment, financial aid and educational planning. Another is to use Guided Pathways to help students streamline their class schedules to avoid unnecessary classes and complete a path in two years. The final improvement Laurel reported on was getting high school students started on a Guided Pathway by offering college courses on high school campuses.

Executive Director Report

Eileen Hill reported that the Foundation has raised $789,387 towards the $3M annual goal. She announced the Foundation's first $100,000 gift to President's Circle from a Cabrillo alumni who is extremely grateful for Cabrillo and the stepping stone it provided him on his educational and career path. Eileen reported that the Heritage Club lunch was a success, and that the Foundation is looking forward to honoring the Monterey Peninsula Foundation at our December 1 Holiday Party. She also announced the upcoming public forum to hear from Cabrillo College Presidential candidates on November 29, Laurel Jones' retirement party on December 6, and a President's Circle Reception for new PC prospects at Ella's at the Airport in Watsonville on January 30, 2018.

SUBJECT:	Morgan Stanley Graystone Consulting Contract

The Finance Committee members reviewed the Graystone Consulting contract previously reviewed by Erin Stagg, Attorney for School and College Legal Services of California and Michael Robins, Cabrillo's Director of Purchasing, Contracts, Risk Management & Auxiliary Services. It was agreed that the content is standard for the industry but there should be a list of questions we periodically ask investment consultant Brian Sharpes in order to fulfill our fiduciary responsibility. The Finance Committee members agreed to sign the contract to provide recourse in the event of disputes and to lock in the investment consulting fee.

RECOMMENDED MOTION

Ratify the Finance Committee's decision to sign the Morgan Stanley Graystone Consulting contract.

DATE:February 1, 2018TO:Board of DirectorsFROM:Eileen HillSUBJECT:Pelz Family Estate Gift

At the end of 2017, the foundation was notified that the Cabrillo College Foundation is the beneficiary of the estate of Evelyn Pelz which is approximately one million dollars. Mrs. Pelz passed away in 1984 and at that time Cabrillo received $25,000 of the estate with any remaining funds to be received upon the deaths of her sons. Her last living son passed away in June 2017.

Eileen spoke with the trustee of the estate, Arnold Van den Berg, who knew the family very well and had managed their financial affairs. He relayed how important Cabrillo was to the Pelz family and how Mrs. Pelz wanted to ensure that there would be funds left to benefit Cabrillo College when her sons passed away. He shared that Mrs. Pelz always spoke highly of Cabrillo College and that it made an important and lasting impact on her sons' lives.

After a lengthy discussion, Mr. Van den Berg is excited the funds will establish the Pelz Family Endowment for the area of greatest need at Cabrillo College. The funds will be available to award each year through consultation with the Executive Director of the foundation, the President of the foundation, and the President of the college.

2017-18 President's Circle Campaign

1/44 000

Mahlon Foote and Ceil Cirillo are co-chairs of the 2017-18 President's Circle Committee. As of January 31, 2018:

- $330,445 has been raised toward our goal of $332,000
 - A total of 206 members have joined this year
 - o 27 NEW members have joined
 - o 23 members have increased their support

A 2017-18 member list and history report are attached

We invited new and prospective President's Circle members from the South County areas to join us for an information reception at Ella's at the Airport on January 30th. Thanks to Michele Bassi's connection, owner Ella King, hosted our group and provided delicious refreshments. We had a wonderful turnout with a total of 27 guests. One guest joined the President's Circle at the event and we expect several others to give in the next few weeks.

On Friday, January 26, we sent reminders to 48 President's Circle members who have not renewed their support this year. They received a note signed by Mahlon and Ceil, as well as another President's Circle invitation and reply card.

Description

The Cabrillo Advancement Program (CAP) is a scholarship and support program designed to increase the academic success of high risk, low income students and to support their preparation for attending college. CAP includes 350 participants in 12 schools throughout Santa Cruz County. CAP scholars are selected through a competitive process open to students who qualify for free or reduced lunches. Beginning with the first year of middle school and continuing through high school, CAP students receive after-school tutoring and participate in counseling and extra-curricular activities that sustain their commitment to preparing for college. Students who complete CAP receive $2,000 in scholarships upon high school graduation for their first and second year at Cabrillo.

Results

CAP has shown amazing success in high school graduation and college-going rates compared to similar population. Last year, 77% of CAP high school seniors reported going to college—either Cabrillo or directly to a four-year university, exceeding the college enrollment benchmark of 49% by 36%.

CAP Funding

In 2016-17 a total of $67,643 was raised for CAP. A solicitation will be sent at the beginning of February to help us raise $16,586 needed to reach our budget of $355,989 for CAP.

Scholarship Program 2017-18

The Cabrillo College Foundation administers a robust scholarship program, which distributes funds annually to academically promising students, as well as students with financial need.

While Cabrillo is affordable for many students, rising textbook prices and the high cost of living in Santa Cruz County can be huge financial obstacles. Scholarships help alleviate some of these burdens, helping our students reach their educational goals.

During the 2016-17 fiscal year, we raised a total of $1,425,024 for scholarships at Cabrillo.

SCHOLARSHIP OPTIONS

Endowed Named Scholarship

With a minimum gift of $15,000, you may establish and name an endowed scholarship and develop specific selection criteria. The corpus of an endowment remains intact, while the earnings are awarded each year in perpetuity. Our spending policy is a 4% distribution over 12 trailing quarters. A minimum of $14,000 will be placed in the historical gift fund and a minimum of $1,000 will be reserved for immediate scholarship award disbursement for the first two years while the endowment is building earnings. Depending on the fluctuations of the stock market, a $14,000 endowment will produce a $500 scholarship award annually.

Nonendowed Named Scholarship

A nonendowed scholarship may be established with a minimum gift of $2,000, which may be pledged over 4 years. A minimum scholarship award of $500 each year must be awarded. You may establish the scholarship name and develop the selection criteria. Once the funds have been depleted, donors may renew their pledge to continue the scholarship.

General Scholarship Endowment

Donors may contribute to the general scholarship fund to support students. Donations may be made in memory or honor of someone. If there is a family member to notify of the gifts

Scholarship Committee Member Responsibilities:

- Serves as ambassador for scholarships program
- Attends committee meetings
- May be called upon to participate on various scholarship selection committees
- Attends annual scholarship reception
- Must be a scholarship donor
- Solicits past and prospective scholarship donors
- Identifies new scholarship donor prospects
- May be called upon to join Executive Director at stewardship lunches with past and prospective scholarship donors received in honor or memory of someone, we will notify them. There is no minimum and there is not an option to name a scholarship or develop criteria.

Executive Director Eileen Hill DATE:February 1, 2018TO:Board of DirectorsFROM:Eileen HillSUBJECT:Tax Reform

The recently approved tax reform bill has created discussion among fundraisers about the potential effects of these changes on philanthropic giving. Attached is a statement from the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP).

The key points of discussion are:

- 1) It is estimated that doubling of the standard deduction will result in less people itemizing their taxes and therefore having less incentive to make charitable gifts for tax benefit.
- 2) It is important to keep an optimistic tone and focus on the value of the charitable work.
- 3) Gifts of stock/Individual Retirement Accounts (IRA) may become more attractive to some donors.
- 4) Corporations stand to benefit from the bill and thus may be in a better position to collaborate with the right charity.
- 5) Charities that can connect with donors and show their impact have the best chance of success.

Tips for Giving After the Tax Bill

With the recently approved tax reform bill significantly affecting charitable giving, the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) offers advice and perspective to both charities and donors as they look at giving in 2017 and beyond.

With the doubling of the standard deduction under the tax bill, the number of Americans who itemize their taxes will drop by 30 million—accounting for $100 billion in itemized charitable gifts, according to the Congressional Joint Committee on Taxation. Since more Americans will do better on their taxes by taking the increased standard deduction—as opposed to itemizing their deductions—the tax incentive for those taxpayers to make charitable gifts will disappear.

Research shows that this change will result in a decline of giving between $13 - $20 billion per year, according to separate research from the Independent Sector and the Lilly Family School of Philanthropy, and the Tax Policy Center.

"People give for many reasons beyond tax incentives, but we do know that tax incentives typically increase the amounts of gifts and encourage people to give more often," said Mike Geiger. "That's why we see Congress and the IRS make tax policy changes following natural disasters, like Hurricanes Harvey, Irma, and Maria, to encourage giving. We are very concerned about the impact of the tax bill on giving, especially for the middle class and donors who currently itemize, but won't have the incentive to in the future. We believe 2018 will see a drop in giving, so we offer the following thoughts about fundraising into the future."

AFP reminds charities and fundraisers that it's important to keep an optimistic tone and perspective moving forward. While many charities may focus on the difficult challenges ahead, it's important that they balance that sense with optimism about how they're still making a difference and changing the world. Donors need to know about the obstacles charities face, and organizations should be realistic about their situations and the needs of communities. But donors don't want to be overwhelmed all the time with negative images. People will always want to help, and charities need to inspire them to action more than ever.

With the standard deduction doubled for 2018 and the charitable deduction gone for most taxpayers, charities and fundraisers are likely to see donors:

- Making larger gifts in 2017 to take advantage of the charitable deduction, which may lead to a significant uptick in giving at the end of the year;
- Giving appreciated investments, such as shares of stock. Donors can take a deduction for the full market value (with some limits), while not having to pay capital-gains tax on the appreciations; and

• Exploring how to contribute through their Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs). Donors age 70½ or older can contribute up to $100,000 of IRA assets directly to one or more charities and have the gift count toward their annual required distributions from the IRA and removed from their taxable income.

With the tax bill lowering corporate tax rates, charities may find more funding and resources from corporations if they can develop effective partnerships that make sense for both organizations. In addition, wealthier donors will still be able to take advantage of the charitable deduction and be willing to make larger, major gifts.

"Again, most donors give because they want to make a difference, and tax incentives are not WHY they give," said Geiger. "But taxes and incentives may dictate how they give, and these are options some donors may take to be charitable and be effective with their taxes at the same time."

Another option is bunching, whereby donors "bunch" future donations together and only give every other year, or every few years, so that their deductions are so high they can take advantage of the charitable deduction and itemize their gifts. AFP is concerned about this giving approach given the yearly needs of most charities.

"Most charities—the people they serve, the missions they support and the ideas they advance—simply can't wait a couple of years to receive a bigger donation," said Geiger. "I understand the appeal of bunching from a tax perspective, but having to wait for donations for so long will play havoc with a charity's planning and ability to meet unexpected and critical needs. I hope most donors will understand that charities require stable support every year and continue to give annually, and that will be a message that charities need to give to their donors."

Ultimately, the best strategies are about how effectively charities engage donors and tell their stories of impacts and outcome. No matter the tax code or the economic environment, charities that can connect with donors, show the impact of their programs and inspire donors to get involved will always be successful. Charities should be focusing on how donors can make a difference.
